NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

RICHFIELD SPRINGS was washed out by a cloudburst yesterday, and the village of Schuyler's Lake was flooded. Considerable damage was done by washing to the Utica and Unadilla's new railroad embankment at Bridgewater, in the southern part of Oneida county.

The announcement that McQuade was acquitted at Ballston last night can hardly be called news. It was a foregone conclusion, and everybody expected it. District Attorney Fellows is simply fulfilling the purpose for which he was elected. A jury cannot convict without evidence.

The Mississippi Republicans have decided to nominate a state ticket this year. Ex-Gov. Stone, the Democratic candidate, is so unpopular that the Republicans are sanguine of enough help from his party to secure them a fair election. If the shotgun is put away the state will go Republican.

RECTOR changes the date of the extra session of Congress to some day in November. Election takes place on the 3d, when the Representatives from the new states in the Northwest will be chosen. The Republicans will have no difficulty in organizing the House after these men come to Washington.

HON. ROSWELL P. HORN of Michigan declines the Valparaiso Consularship with thanks. Mr. Horn wanted something better, it is understood. But there are more distinguished gentlemen than first-class places, and the man who makes up his mind that he will live without the aid of the government is likely to escape some humiliating disappointments.

The life insurance companies lose $250,000 by the Johnstown disaster, and have already paid losses to the amount of $175,000. The heaviest loser is the New York Life, $42,000. The Mutual Life loses $33,000, the Equitable $25,000, the People's Accident $15,000, various assessment associations $20,000, and the Penn Mutual $11,000. Twelve other companies lose from $10,000 to $2,000.

An embankment in Syracuse gave way yesterday while some penitentiary convicts were working beneath it, and George Lord, a tramp, was crushed to death. Lord had been sent from Oswego for begging food at the hotel owned by the Sheriff. He was nearly dressed and had some money and a change of underclothing. Now it is ascertained that he was not a habitual tramp, but an honest fellow in bad luck. But he has paid for his offense with his life.

The rainstorm from the Northwest, which had been making its way east and southeast since Tuesday, has been very violent in its course. From Winnipeg, Dakota, Michigan, Illinois and all parts of Ohio comes news of great floods, waterpots, and destruction by torrents, lightning and hail. The rain has been equally severe in West Virginia. In some parts of the Northwest the rain was the first important one of the season, and brought deliverance from drought.

A NEW YORK grand jury reports that all of the institutions on Ward's and Blackwell's Islands are overcrowded. The total capacity of the male asylum, female asylum, workhouse, almshouse and penitentiary is 6,319; the total number of occupants is 7,913. The bulk of the excess is in the two asylums, that in the male asylum being 447 and in the female 409. Unless some closer restrictions are put on immigration the state will be unable to build charitable and penal institutions fast enough to accommodate the applicants.

ANOTHER manhole was blown up in New York last evening, at the corner of Broadway and Twentieth street. Fortunately very few people were around, and the only person injured was a boy who was blown from a passing wagon. The explosion is attributed to gas, which had leaked from the pipes and filled the manhole. Gas, it is said, will work its way through brick, stone, mortar, or even iron. The explosion lifted the iron work, cover and inside lid of the manhole ten feet in the air, after which it settled back in its place. An area of about 64 feet square of the cobble stone pavement was also torn up.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN has come to New York. We suppose Gov. Hill is apprised of the fact. It is his duty to either send him to Mississippi, where he is wanted by Gov. Lowry, or cause him to be arrested and punished under the laws of this state. The penalty for leaving New York to engage in a prize fight in another state is a year in prison, a fine of $500, or both. All who went with Sullivan are subject to the same amount of punishment. They are all strong men, and would be a valuable accession to the prison forces of the state. Gov. Hill has never exhibited marked sympathy for any class of criminals except political bootlegs.

THE new law for hanging in Minnesota forbids the publishing of any account of an execution beyond the bare announcement of the fact. Yesterday Albert Bulow was hanged at Little Falls for the murder of Frank Eich, and in less than two hours afterwards the newspapers came out with "bare announcements" from two to three columns long. The reporters had bored sugar holes through the pine board enclosure, and one of them had even put on a priestly robe and officiated as spiritual adviser for the criminal. The law has neglected to provide penalties for such infractions as these. The outcome proves the impossibility of editing newspapers by statute in a free country.

TIM SHEA landed at Castle Garden from Ireland yesterday with his son and daughter, 15 and 19 years old. He promptly told that his passage had been paid on the authority of the government, and that he had received a draft for $3.88, besides. His family was one of 250 which were to be sent over in this way to relieve the landlords from taxation for their support. After they are safely over the landlords will reimburse the government for the outlay. She is described as a strong looking man, able and willing to work. He does not wish to be sent back. But before the government allows him to remain it should obtain satisfactory proof that he is not a member of the Clan-na-Gael murder society.

STRIKERS RIOTING IN WISCONSIN.

One of the Leaders Arrested—The State Militia Ordered to the Scene.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., July 20.—A general strike was inaugurated yesterday among laborers here, and over 600 are "out." They demand an increase from $1.50 per day to $1.75. They visited the St. Paul & Pacific coal docks, where 14 men were working at the 40 cents an hour rate under police protection. They overpowered the police and routed the men. The strike has an ugly look, as the men are determined and the contractors equally so. The St. Paul & Pacific and the Northwestern Fuel Company refuse to meet the concessions made by the Lehigh to the coal heavers of 50 cents an hour. They claim they can hire men at 40 cents an hour, and propose to do so. One of the leaders has been arrested. State militia men have been ordered to the scene.

IDLE WORKMEN TO BE EVICTED.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., July 20.—The Spring Valley Coal Company has decided to evict all the idle miners living in the company's houses. Five hundred persons will be thrown out.

MCQUADE THINKS HE HAS BEEN ABUSED.

He Encountered Much Sympathy in Saratoga County. His Future Intentions.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

BALISTON, July 20.—District Attorney Fellows says the result of the McQuade trial was expected by the people. The air was pregnant with sympathy for McQuade, which could not be kept out of the jury box. The trial lasted 10 days, at an expense of $4,000, which is less than half of the expense of the trial when held in New York City. Colonel Fellows states he cannot tell yet what he will do with the other boodle cases. He will remain in Ballston until he has settled all his bills, and then he will return to the City and decide what he shall do. After the Judge pronounced him free McQuade returned to the hotel and joined his family and there was a scene of great rejoicing. The reporters interviewed McQuade and he said he felt he had been a much abused man, and that a great wrong had been done him. He will return to the City and try to regain that which he has lost.

PEOPLE IN DANGER DURING A FIRE.

One Excited Woman Jumped from a Third-Story Window.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, July 20.—Fire was discovered at 2 o'clock this morning in the kitchen of John Nelson's restaurant on Vine-street, and before the flames were gotten under control they worked into Boothby's restaurant adjoining. The loss will not exceed $500. Several persons were sleeping in the upper floors of the two places and some were aroused too late to escape by the stairs. Great excitement prevailed, but the firemen rescued all from the windows. One excited woman jumped from a third-story window, but was not seriously hurt.

LIVERPOOL, July 20.—Several cotton warehouses on Redcross and Grundy-streets were burned to-day. Loss, £50,000.

General Shipping News.

The new twin screw steamer Columbia, built in England for the Hamburg-American Company's line to New York, left 40 knots on its trial trip in an hour and 45 minutes. The Company accepted the vessel at sea, the British flag being hoisted under the German flag hoisted in its place.

Captain Lake, of the schooner Samuel Castner, Jr., at Lanesville from Philadelphia, passed off Fire Island to-day, the wreck of a three-masted schooner supposed to be the Philadelphia schooner Eva Smith.

The schooner Hall ran ashore on Saturday last while being towed to sea from St. Augustine. The deckload of lumber has been taken off and the vessel ordered to Jacksonville for repairs.

The "Sound" freights are heavy.

Judge's Charge Ignored in a Liquor Case.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

CINCINNATI, O., July 20.—A police court jury has acquitted Moritz Eichler, proprietor of a beer garden, of the charge of keeping his place open on Sunday. Several witnesses testified that they saw the place open on Sunday, June 1, and persons drinking beer. The Judge instructed the jury that if they were satisfied that Eichler opened on Sunday for business it was not necessary for witness to show that he sold beer. This is the third or fourth case where these juries have wholly ignored the evidence and the law as defined by the Judge.

Educators in the South.

Dickerson, of Texas, to be United States Marshal for Eastern Texas; M. C. Estcher, of Louisiana, to be United States Attorney for Western Louisiana. To be Consuls: Evans Drake, of Illinois, at Crefeld; Henry C. Plisk, of Vermont, at St. John, Que.; Jasper B. Bradley, of West Virginia, at Southampton, E. O. Webster, of Michigan, at Plores Negres; Archibald J. Sampson, of Colorado, at Paso del Norte; Horace E. Pugh, of Indiana, at Newcastle, England; W. W. Russell, of New York, has been appointed Chief Clerk of the Postal Note Agency in New York City.

DEAL OF GREAT MAGNITUDE WEST.

First Step of English Syndicate Toward Purchase of Minneapolis Mills.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 20.—What is regarded as a possible first step toward the purchase of the Minneapolis flour mills by an English syndicate was announced last evening. It was given out on undoubted authority that a party of Englishmen now here closed a deal yesterday for the purchase of the Van Deusen line of elevators. This system is owned principally by G. W. Van Deusen, of Rochester, Minn., and includes about 40 elevators on the line of the Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Omaha Railroad. It is impossible to secure details of the transaction at present, as the men interested are not accessible. That a deal of importance is about to be consummated was admitted by Levi Mayer, the legal representative of the London English Investment Company, and one of the men here with the English party. "I do not think our business concerns the public," he said, "but I will say we are in Minneapolis for the purpose of consummating a deal of great magnitude, and which will greatly benefit Minneapolis and the public generally. I am not prepared to say what the nature of the deal is, nor whom it concerns."

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS IN TENNESSEE.

Crockery and Glassware Thrown From Shelves in Several Instances.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 20.—At 6:32 o'clock last evening a slight shock of earthquake was felt here. Crockery and glassware were rattled and in some instances were thrown from shelves. Two severe shocks were felt at Covington, Tenn., 35 miles north of Memphis, each shock lasting several seconds. For a while the wildest confusion prevailed. Houses were abandoned and the streets filled with frightened people. A third but lighter shock was felt later.

TO "GIVE NEWSPAPERS A CHANCE."

A Rumor that Professor Hogan is Alive And on Long Island.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

JACKSON, Mich., July 20.—Though nothing definite has been heard of Professor Hogan, there are many rumors that the aviator is safe. A private dispatch is said to have been received by Peter J. H. of Detroit, from a source in the South, that he is nearly 100 miles from New York, stating that he has been a mile of that distance at 10 o'clock, coming down directly under the setting sun. He was nearly overcome by seasickness, but he was rescued by a man in cutting his way through the canvas netting. He reached the village more dead than alive and was cared for there. He immediately became unconscious from exhaustion and hunger and no one knew who he was until Wednesday noon when the airship was found and Hogan had regained consciousness. It occurred to Hogan at this juncture to keep quiet and give the newspapers a chance to work themselves.

A "Strike at Liberty of the Press."

By Telegram to The Freeman.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 20.—United States District Attorney Baxter, in speaking of the John Smith Day law which prohibits newspapers from printing reports of executions in the State, says that without looking into the question he should think there might be grounds for declaring it unconstitutional. It might be found to strike at the liberty of the press. The law is a violation of the Constitution, and the papers shall and shall not publish might be struck out as the subject is not considered in the title of the act. The constitutionality of the act will be tested in the case of Bulow, who was hanged yesterday at Little Falls.

Drowned in Lake Michigan.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 20.—Miss Bertha Head and Richard Lyman, members of leading families of Kenosha, were drowned in Lake Michigan by the upsetting of a skiff last evening. The Life-Saving Station men had warned them not to venture out, as the Lake was rough.

A Murderer at Large.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

ASHLAND, Wis., July 20.—Joseph Feuchs, who murdered his wife while walking along the railroad track yesterday, is still at large. He is in a boggy marsh, and will either die in the swamp or be captured by the large parties of men hunting for him.

SPORTS OF THE DAY PARAGRAPHED.

Items of Interest in Relation to Base Ball And Other Matters.

Manager Bancroft and all his players deny emphatically that there is any trouble in the Indianapolis Club. Manager Bancroft said today: "I resign to-day because I don't see how I can do any good in the team. The players have not been dissipating, and the only reason we have not won more games is that our team is weak in the pitching department. As to the players not being paid that is all rot, since salaries are never paid away from home. The players will all get their full salaries as soon as the team reaches Indianapolis on July 26."

President Young, of the League, says he has heard nothing of the reported financial difficulties of the Indianapolis Club. He says the managers of the club are too busy to give up their franchise, which would mean a loss of $15,000 outright, and expresses the belief that the club will play out the season under the present management.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, July 20.—The name of the man who was arrested on suspicion of being the Whitechapel murderer and who subsequently confessed that he was guilty, is William Brodie. He was arraigned before a Police Magistrate this morning. He stated to the Magistrate that the confession made by him to the police was true. The prisoner was remanded for a week.

Found Guilty of Assault.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

OSWEGO, N. Y., July 20.—Yesterday at Pulaski was finished the trial of Andrew Hageny, William Putnam and Michael Donovan, Union sailors, charged with a murder assault upon Jesse Josephs, mate of the schooner John Schuler, of Toledo, at the dock in this port on the night of April 26. Josephs was dragged a mile into the suburbs, pounded with bludgeins and thrown into the cellar of a burned house. He managed to crawl to an adjoining house. The jury came in at 4 o'clock with a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree, and recommended Putnam to mercy. There was no evidence that Putnam, although present, struck Josephs. The same three, with four other Union sailors, are also to be tried for coercion

CAMPAIGN DEBTS UNPAID.

Along with the news of the great preparations by the Democrats for the campaign of 1892, and of profound estimates, calculations and plans for victory, comes the noise of strife over the expenses of last year's campaign. In plain language, those who subscribed to the party's expense fund refuse to pay up. They fancied when they gave their pledge that their money was to fall on good ground and return a rich harvest of offices, instead of dropping into the bottomless pit of defeat. They feel like Gov. Hill over the Indian investigation expense which he refused to approve because it had not been, according to his information, of any particular value to the state. They refuse to meet their promises to pay because they cannot perceive that the election last fall was of any particular value to themselves.

Behind the men who promised and now refuse to pay stand Wm. L. Scott, Calvin S. Brice and Senator Gorman, who agreed to pay out of their own pockets whatever expenses of the campaign were not provided for by the subscriptions of expectant politicians. These gentlemen held a private meeting in New-York a few days ago, and permitted the announcement to go out that they were arranging for a big fight in the new states of the Northwest. This was merely a blind. They met to consider the indebtedness of the Committee, and to devise, if possible, a course of action. They found over $300,000 of the Committee's debts unpaid. Some of the creditors are impatient and eager to bring suit. One of these is the Belford's Magazine Company, whose editor, Don Platt, resigned his position the other day on account of the financial condition of the concern. The Company sold to the Committee 40,000 magazines a month for four months at six cents a copy, and the account is unsettled. Martin B. Brown & Co., printers in Park Place, have also a bill of several thousand dollars against the committee. And those who were promised pay that they have never received for campaign work, and are on hand whenever the responsible men of the committee get together—their name is Legion.

A political debt like this is a "debt of honor" like that incurred by the unlucky gambler, and must be paid. Wm. L. Scott needs only to give his workmen another squeeze on wages or add a small percentage to prices at his "company stores" to get it all back. The resources of Brice and Gorman are not so broad, in that they do not cover so many working people, but both are very rich men and the payment of their share will not impoverish them. Brice and Gorman are both in politics, but Scott left Congress for a place in the Cabinet and cast in his chances with those of Cleveland. Unless he has ceased to be a politician, he too will feel like the others of the trio, that these debts must be paid before he can turn to his party and demand of it a certificate of character.

The Democratic party, with its hands upon the administration, with every place-holder assessed from President to the humblest clerk, with the great monopolies of the country backing it, including the Standard Oil Company and the whisky and sugar trusts, and with English merchants and manufacturers ready to lay down their last dollar of surplus to secure free trade with the United States, was still unable to meet the ravenous demands for boodle that came up from the rank and file. Voters had obtained too large an idea of its wealth and its power to command ready money. We have the statement, on the authority of an Ulster county Democrat, that the votes of his own party had gone up from $1 to $25 each. There will never be another such campaign of boodle. The money can never again be raised. There are no offices to assess, the great trusts have nothing more to expect from the Democratic party, and the English free traders are bringing their capital across the Atlantic and becoming Americans and protectionists. The only thing left for the party to do is to pay its debts and close its doors.

LOCAL OPTION REJECTED.

In the New Jersey Prohibition Convention yesterday Rev. George Davis introduced a resolution, as an amendment to another resolution, commending the local option idea. The cheering that followed the motion proved that Mr. Davis had a majority of the convention with him. But one extremist after another got up and declared that the resolution would help the Republican party, while others spoke in its favor. The discussion became so hot that few heard when the "question" was called; and the chairman declared Mr. Davis's resolution lost before half the delegates knew that a vote had been taken upon it.

Local option involves the whole principle of prohibition. It was included in the recent New Jersey high license law which a Democratic Legislature repealed, and under its provisions several counties voted no license. Among these was Warren, a rural county with a population as solid for Democracy as Schenectady in this state. Wherever no license has been carried and maintained under local option laws for a few years, the liquor trade has been exterminated. And yet it is not good enough for the men who, in the name of prohibition, conspire to keep the Democratic party in power. Fortunately their organization is split squarely in two this year, and a sufficient number of old adherents will go over to the Republican party to elect a Governor and Legislature.

The convention nominated George Lamotte for Governor. He is a native of Schenectady county and graduate of Union college, and made a fortune at paper manufacturing in New York. He lives at Bound Brook and is President of a bank there. His Schenectady origin accounts for his Democratic sympathies. He will not receive the support of Gen. Fisk or of one half of the 7,904 votes cast for that gentleman last fall.

REPUBLICAN HARMONY IN VIRGINIA.

The Republican National Committee sent a sub-committee down to Virginia to settle the party differences there. They found the Mahone wing to possess the party organization, but gave a hearing to the grievances of those who stood out. The latter complained of the arbitrary ways of the Mahone party committee in appointing the temporary chairmen and secretaries of the precinct and county conventions, thus depriving them of the right to have these conventions free and open. The sub-committee found little difficulty in arranging a compromise. They took up the call of the Mahone committee for a state convention on August 23d, and broadened it by providing that precinct and county conventions shall elect their own officers, and that their permanent chairman and secretary shall certify the delegates elected to the chairman of the state committee. It also made it the first duty of the state convention, after the reading of the call, to have read a list of the delegates certified by the county convention to the state committee. With these modifications the Mahone call for a state convention is approved. The adjustment is signed by all the members of the sub-committee, Quay, Clarkson, Dudley, Fessenden and Hobart, and by Brady, member of the national committee for Virginia, who is an anti-Mahoneite. All the members of the sub-committee except Quay have also been reckoned as opposed to Mahone. The adjustment is satisfactory to every Republican in Virginia, and the party proposes to "get together" at the next election, when a Governor is to be chosen.

Virginia may properly be classed among the doubtful states. In 1881 the Republicans carried it by 11,716 plurality. It went for Cleveland in 1884 by 6,141 plurality, and again in 1888 by 1,539. In 1886 the Republicans carried the state in the Congressional elections by 20,859, but the next year the Democrats rallied sufficiently to show a plurality of 426 on the Legislature. The Republican party has been divided in all of these elections. Unity means a full vote, and with Mahone for leader the vote will be counted as cast.

THE SINFULNESS OF DANCING.

A Georgia Senator Declares Against It—It Shall not Defile the New Capitol.
[From the Atlanta Constitution.]
Senator McCarthy rose to speak. "I have with the amendment" (forbidding dancing in the celebration at the completion of the state Capitol), said he. "Since this has been agitated letters have come to me from strangers, asking that the Senate of Georgia commit itself not to the ball. It has come from Christian people, it is the strength of the churches that is exerted in this land to prevent dancing. Every church in the land stands up against it. The issue was tried in a church in Atlanta years ago, and a great confusion resulted from it. I am not prepared to say to you, many of you, that you go down to the sold church people of Georgia they do not approve of it. Why should we turn the Capitol over to these frivolities? I have a letter from a Christian woman at Albany, a stranger to me, but I know from her letter that she is a Christian woman, and she protests against this use of the Capitol. What minister in the state of Georgia would vote against that amendment? They are endeavoring to pull the churches up to what they conceive to be correct Christian sentiment, and here we are invited by resolution to turn the Capitol over to that which every pulpit, whenever occasion offers, is speaking against, and sincerely against."

Then Mr. Johnson, the gallant young Senator from Columbus, took a hand. "Is not the Capitol large enough to let those who wish to dance stay in this end, and those who do not wish to dance stay in that end?" "I do not believe it is right to turn the Capitol of Georgia over to have a ball. How many ministers of Atlanta who are striving to support the principles of religion as it is in the Lord Jesus Christ would come here and take part in it? And I say their standard and the sentiments cherished by them are better than that of any one else, and I don't mean any reflection socially on any one else. I say that the churches have spoken against this all over Georgia, and it is time the Senate should speak."

The amendment was adopted.

PUBLIC OPINION.

The Newburgh Journal takes up our cry for a two-thirds Republican vote in the legislature. Good sense and true put in nomination will win the fight. Move on! move on! good friends. We shall get our reform legislation in spite of the peanut Governor.—Albany Express.

"Jack the Ripper," Arthur Richmond and the murderer of Dr. Cronin are an interesting trio of mysterious individuals. And it is a curious thing that the name is probably better known to one of each of them.—Utica Observer.

Mrs. Harrison is quite right to ask for a private Presidential residence. A house whose mistress can't find a room to see the cook about breakfast in without being interrupted by office-seekers and sight-seers might as well be a dime museum for all the home comfort there is about it.—Philadelphia Times.

It is a sad fact that the moss of innocuous desuetude grows straightway upon the backs of whomsoever the New York Sun begins to praise. Just at present that brilliant but fitful luminary is industriously glorifying David B. Hill. Of a verity his political mausoleum is preparing for him.—Troy Times.

Every Night I Scratched Until the Skin was Raw.

Body Covered with Scales like Spots of Mortar.

An Awful Spectacle. Doctors Useless. Cure Hopeless. Entirely Cured by the Cuticura Remedies in Five Weeks.

I am going to tell you of the extraordinary change your Cuticura Remedies performed on me. About the 1st of April last I noticed some red pimples like scurf on my face, and I began to scratch it until some time later on, when it began to look like spots of mortar spotted on, and which came off in layers, accompanied by itching. I would scratch every night until I was raw, then the next night the scales, being formed meanwhile, were scratched off again. In vain did I consult all the doctors in the country, but without avail. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see and advertisement in the newspaper about your Cuticura Remedies, and purchased them from my druggist, and obtained almost immediate relief. I began to notice that the scaly eruptions gradually dropped off and disappeared. In a few days I was cured. I had the disease thirteen months before I began taking the Cuticura Remedies. Four or five weeks was entirely cured. My disease was eczema and psoriasis. I recommended the Cuticura Remedies to all in my vicinity, and know of a great many who have taken them, and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babies with scaly eruptions on their heads and bodies. I can't express in words the thanks to you for the Cuticura Remedies. I have been able to my body covered with scales, and I was an awful spectacle. GEO. COTTEY, Merrill, Wis.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

Relief Instantaneous, Cure Rapid, Radical and Permanent.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, and, in some cases, all, yield to its destructive influence. The nervous system, the system of the body, is rendered every vital force, and injures the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, it is immediately assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved. It is, in time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease, the remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once ignorant and trusting. The new and radical method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his Radical Cure has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is an instantaneous and a forcing relief in all head colds, sneezing, snuffling, and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell and taste, and neutralizing the constraining tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

CAMPAIGN DEBTS UNPAID.

Along with the news of the great preparations by the Democrats for the campaign of 1892, and of profound estimates, calculations and plans for victory, comes the noise of strife over the expenses of last year's campaign. In plain language, those who subscribed to the party's expense fund refuse to pay up. They fancied when they gave their pledge that their money was to fall on good ground and return a rich harvest of offices. Instead of dropping into the bottomless pit of defeat. They feel like Gov. Hill over the Indian investigation expense which he refused to approve because it had not been, according to his information, of any particular value to the state. They refuse to meet their promises to pay because they cannot perceive that the election last fall was of any particular value to themselves.

Behind the men who promised and now refuse to pay stand Wm. L. Scott, Calvin S. Brice and Senator Gorman, who agreed to pay out of their own pockets whatever expenses of the campaign were not provided for by the subscriptions of expectant politicians. These gentlemen held a private meeting in New York a few days ago, and permitted the announcement to go out that they were arranging for a big fight in the new state of the Northwest. This was merely a blind. They met to consider the indebtedness of the Committee, and to devise, if possible, a course of action. They found over $300,000 of the Committee's debts unpaid. Some of the creditors are impatient and eager to bring suit. One of these is the Belford Magazine Company, whose editor, Don Platt, resigned his position the other day on account of the financial condition of the concern. The Company sold to the Committee 40,000 magazines a month for four months at six cents a copy, and the account is unsettled. Martin B. Brown & Co., printers in Park Place, have also a bill of several thousand dollars against the committee. And those who were promised pay that they have never received for campaign work, and are on hand whenever the responsible men of the committee get together—their name is Legion.

A political debt like this is a "debt of honor" like that incurred by the unlucky gambler, and must be paid. Wm. L. Scott needs only to give his workmen another squeeze on wages or add a small percentage to prices at his "company stores" to get it all back. The resources of Brice and Gorman are not so broad, in that they do not cover so many working people, but both are very rich men and the payment of their share will not impoverish them. Brice and Gorman are both in politics, but Scott left Congress for a place in the Cabinet and cast in his chances with those of Cleveland. Unless he has ceased to be a politician, he too will feel like the others of the trio, that these debts must be paid before he can turn to his party and demand of it a certificate of honor.

The Democratic party, with its hands upon the administration, with every place-holder assessed from President to the humblest clerk, with the great monopolies of the country backing it, including the Standard Oil Company and the whisky and sugar trusts, and with English merchants and manufacturers ready to lay down their last dollar of surplus to secure free trade with the United States, was still unable to meet the ravenous demands for boodle that came up from the rank and file. Voters had obtained too large an idea of its wealth and its power to command ready money. We have the statement, on the authority of an Ulster county Democrat, that the votes of his own party had gone up from $1 to $25 each. There will never be another such campaign of boodle. The money can never again be raised. There are no offices to assess, the great trusts have nothing more to expect from the Democratic party, and the English free traders are bringing their capital across the Atlantic and becoming Americans and protectionists. The only thing left for the party to do is to pay its debts and close its doors.

LOCAL OPTION REJECTED.

In the New Jersey Prohibition Convention yesterday Rev. George Davis introduced a resolution, as an amendment to another resolution, commending the local option idea. The cheering that followed the motion proved that Mr. Davis had a majority of the convention with him. But one extremist after another got up and declared that the resolution would help the Republican party, while others spoke in its favor. The discussion became so hot that few heard when the "question" was called; and the chairman declared Mr. Davis's resolution lost before half the delegates knew that a vote had been taken upon it.

Local option involves the whole principle of prohibition. It was included in the recent New Jersey high license law which a Republican Legislature passed and a Democratic Legislature repealed, and under its provisions several counties voted no license. Among these was Warren, a rural county with a population as solid for Democracy as Schuylkill in this state. Wherever no license has been carried and maintained under local option laws for a few years, the liquor trade has been exterminated. And yet it is not good enough for the men who, in the name of prohibition, conspire to keep the Democratic party in power. Fortunately their organization is split square in two this year, and a sufficient number of old adherents will go over to the Republican party to elect a Governor and Legislature.

The convention nominated George La Monte for Governor. He is a native of Schuylkill county and graduate of Union college, and made a fortune at paper manufacturing in New York. He lives at Bound Brook and is President of a bank there. His Schuylkill origin accounts for his Democratic sympathies. He will not receive the support of Gen. Fisk or of one half of the 7,904 votes cast for that gentleman last fall.

REPUBLICAN HARMONY IN VIRGINIA.

The Republican National Committee sent a sub-committee down to Virginia to settle the party differences there. They found the Mahone wing to possess the party organization, but gave a hearing to the grievances of those who stood out. The latter complained of the arbitrary ways of the Mahone party committee in appointing the temporary chairman and secretaries of the precinct and county conventions, thus depriving them of the right to have these conventions free and open. The sub-committee found little difficulty in arranging a compromise. They took up the call of the Mahone committee for a state convention on August 23d, and broadened it by providing that precinct and county conventions shall elect their own officers, and that their permanent chairman and secretary shall certify the delegates elected to the chairman of the state committee. It also made it the duty of the state committee, after the reading of the call, to have read a list of the delegates certified by the county convention to the state committee. With these modifications the Mahone call for a state convention is approved. The adjustment is signed by all the members of the sub-committee, Quay, Clarkson, Dudley, Fessenden and Hobart, and by Brady, member of the national committee for Virginia, who is an anti-Mahoneite. All the members of the sub-committee except Quay have also been reckoned as opposed to Mahone. The adjustment is satisfactory to every Republican in Virginia, and the party proposes to "get together" at the next election, when a Governor is to be chosen.

Virginia may properly be classed among the doubtful states. In 1881 the Republicans carried it by 11,716 plurality. It went for Cleveland in 1884 by 6,141 plurality, and again in 1888 by 1,539. In 1886 the Republicans carried the state in the Congressional elections by 20,859, but the next year the Democrats rallied sufficiently to show a plurality of 426 on the Legislature. The Republican party has been divided in all of these elections. Unity means a full vote, and with Mahone for leader the vote will be counted as cast.

THE SINFULNESS OF DANCING.

A Georgia Senator Declares Against It—It Shall Not Defile the New Capital.

Senator McCarry rose to speak. "I agree with the amendment" (forbidding dancing in the celebration at the completion of the state Capitol), said he. "Since this has been agitated letters have come to me from Christians, asking that the Senate of Georgia commit itself not to the hall. It has come from Christian people. It is the strength of the churches that is exerted in this land to prevent this. Every church, every minister, every physician and all other remedies fail. I cannot express in words the thanks to you for the Cuticura Remedies, and in being freed from my body was covered with scales, and I was an awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is as nice and clear as a baby's."

CATCHING TROUT NEAR-BY.

FISHING PLACES OF NOTE UP IN THE

CATSKILL MOUNTAINS.

Various Kinds of Bait That are Used—Physical

Exertion Required—How a Distinguished Lawyer Found Rare Sport and Recovered His Health—A Story With a Moral.

Trout can be caught in Ulster County up to September 15. Ulster is one of the counties included in the Forest Preserve. In counties outside of the Forest Preserve, the law is in force September 1. Many fishermen traverse streams among the Catskill

Mountains these days. The weather has been exceptionally fine the past week. Fly fishermen are more successful in July and August than those who fish with worms.

This is a rule. Of course there are exceptions to all rules. Trout are peculiar. They will jump at a fly during one part of the day, refusing it at another time, perhaps taking a worm in preference.

The very trout man, says, "I have been the greatest success with the 'brown buckle' and 'coachman' fly, though one of the most expert fishermen in the State uses

the 'professor,' and claims it is the best.

The fact is," says this angler, "that there are 300 or more different artificial flies. Some claim one is best and some another, 'y' takes yer choice.' By using a fly larger fish are caught than with a worm. It requires greater skill and at times takes the patience of the angler. One day I fished in a lake in the Catskills. There was 20 feet of water and I caught 36 trout in three hours. The fish averaged from seven to 10 inches in length. Beautiful fish!

I thought I would rest awhile. A few hours later I tried it again in the same place.

I fished four hours and did not have a solitary nibble. When trout will neither bite on fly nor worms try something else. One day after losing my whole stock of patience casting a fly I was so tired that I went into a field near the stream and caught a lot of grasshoppers. I fastened one to my hook and dropped it on the water. There was a rush for that grasshopper, and I would have to sweat there wasn't a dozen trout in that rush. The grasshopper's legs and head were from his body before I could say 'Jack Robinson.' Then a great big fellow came and the water and swallowed the remainder, hook and all. I had no trouble to catch fish after that. Grasshoppers were a great attraction."

"One thing about trout is they will or they won't. When they will, they will. They will be of one mind and the fisherman has only to pull them out."

Fishing along the Catskill Mountain streams requires considerable physical exertion, but the human body needs a great amount of exercise, said a veteran piscator

today. "How men fully realize this is evident. The mechanic and laborer have sufficient exercise in every day work. They need a different kind of relaxation.

But the man who sits at the desk,

in the counting room, or in the law office, in fact all men whose occupation is sedentary, require physical exercise. They are not likely to get too much of it for the good of their health. Men are by nature too lazy for that. The best exercise is that which is taken out of doors.

Men have their health and vigor in the water and I imagine I have mine. I claim that there is no exercise in the world for the man of sedentary habits that can compare with fishing for trout in the streams of the Catskill Mountains. My opinion is founded upon experience and upon what I have seen and heard. The physical exercise is great.

The angler must tramp along the streams,

often times clamber over rocks, hunt his way through the brush and walk for miles, as well as throw the line and hold the pole, which is no easy task if continued for several hours. The pleasure of fishing causes him to be heedless of the labor. He only realizes it at night when he finds he is weary. But he drops to sleep with a pleasurable feeling and sleeps a sleep without dreams. When I read in the newspapers about men broken in health going South for a sea-side resort,

A SUMMARY OF INTERESTING NEWS.

Some of the Happenings at Home and Abroad.

The British Consul Agent at Jaffa, in his last report on the trade of his district, states that a concession for a railway from Jaffa to Jeddah has been granted by the Sultan to Joseph Navon, an Ottoman subject, for 71 years. It is stated that the concession was granted in England and France to carry out the scheme, and that the engineers are soon expected to undertake the work. The engineering road between Jaffa and Jerusalem has been greatly improved. The Government has just paid the income from the railway for the year before last, which shows an increase in the traffic. The Jewish colonies in Palestine are greatly improving; one of them, which is called Rikion, has planted about 2,000 vines,

all promising well. The land is cultivated.

The latest revelation concerning Egyptian antiquities came through the research of

Professor Naville, of Geneva, made at Babus-

Bahut, the sacred city of Egypt, the discovery of a temple, the existence of which had been entirely forgotten. The temple discovered extensive remains of it, and striking proof to show that the pyramids of Cheops and Chephren must have been in existence at least by 3700 B. C., or about 6,000 years ago. The temple was built by Sesostris, one of the great monarchs of the twenty-third century B. C.

The discussion consequent upon the influence of leprosy in the East leads to curious conclusions of opinion regarding its cause. One authority declares it to be beyond question

the result of a hot and damp climate, and states that it comes from bathing when a state of perspiration; a third from sitting in a draught; a fourth says that it is hereditary;

a fifth that it is contagious, and so is caught like small-pox or scarlet fever; and another asserts a belief in its being a punishment for sin.

Senator Beck, of Kentucky, who has been looking around that part of New York City which lies in the vicinity of the Grand Hotel, a stern-faced Scotchman, and bears upon his features the marks of a severe and long life. But those who know him are aware that he can step around in a lively way at times. Senator Beck's second term in the Senate expired last March, and he has now

the right to take care of himself.
